CURRENT POLITICAL AND MILITARY SITUATION IN CHILE. RELATIONS BETWEEN FORMER PRESIDENT AUGUSTO ((PINOCHET)) UGARTE AND CURRENT PRESIDENT AZOCAR ((AYLWIN)) PATRICIO HAVE IMPROVED SINCE THE RELEASE OF THE CHILEAN REPORT ON THE INVESTIGATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES. ATTRIBUTED THIS TO AYLWIN'S DECISION NOT TO PROCEED WITH FURTHER GOVERNMENT ACTION ON THE FINDINGS OF THE REPORT. AYLWIN PLEADED PINOCHET BY ELECTING TO DO NOTHING SPECIFIC AND LEAVING THE DECISION REGARDING ANY PROSECUTIONS TO THE CHILEAN COURTS. PINOCHET AND AYLWIN HAVE REACHED AN ACCOMMODATION IN WHICH PINOCHET WILL TAKE CARE OF THE ARMY AND AYLWIN WILL RUN THE GOVERNMENT WITH NO INTERFERENCE FROM PINOCHET. THERE WAS NO CHANCE OF ANOTHER MILITARY COUP IN CHILE.

2. THE CHILEAN ARMY HAS SPLIT INTO THREE GROUPS. THE "FIGHTERS" ARE THOSE WHO HELD HIGH POSITIONS IN THE ARMY AT THE TIME OF THE 1973 COUP. THE "STREET FIGHTERS" ARE THOSE WHO TOOK TO THE STREETS TO COMBAT THE ENEMIES OF THE STATE AFTER THE COUP. THE "CLIMBERS" ARE THOSE WHO REMAINED AT THEIR DESKS DURING AND AFTER THE COUP, BUT WHO WANT TO RETAIN INFLUENCE IN THE ARMY. FACTIONALISM MAY BECOME A PROBLEM IN THE FUTURE.

3. PREDICTED THAT THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY WILL WIN THE 1993 ELECTIONS. THERE WILL BE SOME KIND OF COALITION LED BY THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS AND THAT IT WILL INCLUDE SOME OF THE PARTIES WHICH BACKED AYLWIN'S CAMPAIGN. THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS HAVE NO CURRENT PLANS TO FIELD THEIR OWN CANDIDATE INDEPENDENTLY.

4. SOME CHANGES WOULD OCCUR IN THE MANAGEMENT OF CORDELCO, THE STATE-CONTROLLED ENTITY

WHICH RUNS THE CHILEAN COPPER MINES. RECENT MINERS STRIKES, WHICH REVEALED THAT CORDELCO MANAGERS IN SANTIAGO HAVE LITTLE CONTACT WITH THE FIELD, WILL PROMPT THE CHANGES. CORDELCO OFFICIALS ARE WAITING UNTIL THE SITUATION COOLS DOWN BEFORE MAKING THE CHANGES.
